Anne, a young orphan from the fictional community of Bolingbroke, Nova Scotia (based upon the real community of New London), is sent to Prince Edward Island after a childhood spent in strangers' homes and orphanages. Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert, siblings in their fifties and sixties, had decided to adopt a boy from the orphanage to help Matthew run their farm. They live at Green Gables, their Avonlea farmhouse on Prince Edward Island. Through a misunderstanding, the orphanage sends Anne Shirley. Anne is described as bright and quick, eager to please, talkative, and extremely imaginative. She has a pale face with freckles and usually braids her red hair. Marilla at first says the girl must return to the orphanage, but after a few days, she decides to let her stay. Marilla feels that she could be a good influence on the girl and has also learned that a disagreeable woman in town might take Anne instead. As a child of imagination, Anne takes much joy in life and adapts quickly, thriving in the close-knit farming village. Her talkativeness initially drives the prim, duty-driven Marilla to distraction, although Matthew falls for her charm immediately. Anne says that they are kindred spirits. Episodes include her play-time with friends (Diana, Jane Andrews and Ruby Gillis), her run-ins with the unpleasant Pye sisters (Gertie and Josie), and domestic mishaps such as dyeing her hair green (while intending to dye it black) or accidentally getting Diana drunk (by giving her what she thinks is raspberry cordial but is currant wine). When asked her name, Anne asks Marilla to call her Cordelia, which Marilla refuses; Anne then insists that if she is to be called Anne, it must be spelled with an e, as that spelling is so much more distinguished. Marilla at first says the girl must return to the orphanage, but after a few days she decides to let her stay. Marilla feels that she could be a good influence on the girl and had also overheard that another disagreeable woman in town might take Anne in instead. Two years ago I would have bet a bazillion dollars I would never read a girls book. But at 71 years of age I found myself in a house full of books only one of which I had not read. I am terribly addicted to reading so, in desperation, I started Anne of Green Gables. It is a marvelous book with a main character I wish I could meet every day in real life. Again to feed my addiction I bought the Anne of Green Gables series. Each book was a delight and I soon forgot that they were girls books. Maud created a character we all need in our life. She turns the mundane magical and believable. Reading them all in nearly a continuous setting makes Anne wearying to quote Marilla since unbounded child-like wonder is hard to maintain. I wish I had read these books decades ago so Anne could have helped me through some less than happy times.

For readers interested in a humorous yet poignant exploration of women's lives, The Provincial Lady Series is an essential addition to literary collections. Delafield's delightful blend of satire and sincerity not only entertains but also prompts reflection on the gender roles and societal pressures that persist today. This complete edition invites both new and returning readers to savor the rich experiences and wisdom embedded within these interconnected narratives.
